President Obama Announces the Appointment of Seven Individuals to the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico

WASHINGTON, DC – Today, President Barack Obama announced the appointment of seven individuals to the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico. The Board was established by the bipartisan Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), signed into law by President Obama on June 30th to address the economic crisis in Puerto Rico and to provide Puerto Rico with the tools it needs to restructure its debts and embark on a path to economic recovery. The Board is tasked with working with the people and Government of Puerto Rico to create the needed foundation for economic growth and to restore opportunity to the 3.5 million Americans of Puerto Rico.

President Obama announced the appointment of the following individuals to the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico:

- Andrew G. Biggs – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico
- Jose B. Carrión III – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico
- Carlos M. García – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico
- Arthur J. Gonzalez – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico
- José R. González – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico
- Ana J. Matosantos – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico
- David A. Skeel Jr. – Member, Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico

President Obama said, “With a broad range of skills and experiences, these officials have the breadth and depth of knowledge that is needed to tackle this complex challenge and put the future of the Puerto Rican people first. In order to be successful, the Financial Oversight and Management Board will need to establish an open process for working with the people and Government of Puerto Rico, and the members will have to work collaboratively to build consensus for their decisions. I thank these individuals for making the decision to serve the people of Puerto Rico as members of the Board. The task ahead for Puerto Rico is not an easy one, but I am confident Puerto Rico is up to the challenge of stabilizing the fiscal situation, restoring growth, and building a better future for all Puerto Ricans.”
